Re: Bond Counsel Fees

Dear Ms. O'Toole,

Day Pitney's Bond Counsel fees normally are based on a percentage of the dollar amount of bonds or notes authorized and the amount of the financing. Our fee schedule has been in effect, with certain adjustments, for many years, and has not changed from the December 2007 schedule previously forwarded to the Town. If you have any questions concerning the manner in which we calculate our fees, please be sure to contact us. I have also enclosed a list of our disbursement charges, effective as of January 1, 2014.

In some certain instances we may be required to do additional work beyond the normal scope of our services in connection with a borrowing authorization or a bond or note sale. In such circumstances generally we would charge on an hourly basis. In compliance with the Connecticut Rules of Professional Conduct, I write to inform you of the hourly billing rates that will be in effect as of January 1, 2014, for the attorneys and paralegals in our Municipal Finance Practice, as shown on the separate attached sheet. These hourly rates range from $200 to $570.

We recognize it is imperative to control expenses in this time of economic uncertainty and we have taken significant steps to reduce our own expenses in an effort to minimize rate increases for 2014. As you know, we make every effort to assure the most efficient and effective match between the lawyers assigned to a matter and the knowledge and experience required for a particular task. Accordingly, it is possible that lawyers who are not on this list may also perform services for you in 2014. Our goal has been and will continue to be to provide excellent value at as low an overall cost of service as possible. In 2014, the hourly rates of partners of the Firm and of-counsel attorneys will range between $405 and $780, the hourly rate range for associates and counsel will be between $255 and $575, and the hourly rate range for paralegals will be between $185 and $300.

We have greatly appreciated the opportunity to serve the Town and look forward to serving you further in 2014.

Very truly yours,
