- 1. Verify the correct spelling of your name, Social Security Number, birthdate, mailing/property address and phone number.
- 2. Enter your marital status. You are either “Married” or “Unmarried,” in most cases. If your spouse passed away in 2020 or 2021, you are still considered “Married” for this purpose. If you are widowed, you are considered “Unmarried.”
- 3. Provide proof of income for the year 2020. You SSA-1099 for 2020 (this is the form you should have received by the end of January, 2020 from Social Security with your annual benefit amount) is a mandatory requirement. If you filed a 2020* Federal Income Tax Return you will also need to bring the filed return. Lastly, you must include any other 1099’s listing interest, dividends, pension benefits, or any other income unless it was included in your filed 2020 tax return.
- 4. Your signature is required, near the middle of the application, including the date.
- 5. Completed applications are due by May 15, 2021
